General Comment

To Whom It May Concern:

I oppose any exemption that allows an exclusion of preventative health services for some women based on their employers' religious beliefs.

As an American, I already live in a society where my ability to access healthcare is dependent on my employment status. This already is a gross violation of international human rights standards according to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Please do not further contribute to this unjust system by limiting the ability of women to access health options.

Respectfully,
